Men's Meeting To-night.

The men's meeting to-night will be addressed by Rev. J. H. Little. The music will be a feature of this meeting which promises to be very interesting. The meetings at the Young Men's Christian Association building this week are attractive and are enjoyed by a goodly number of young men.

Republicans to Meet this Evening.

This evening at 7:30 o'clock a meeting will be held in Handlan's hall of all the Republicans of the Eighth ward and North Benwood, who desire to go to the Pittsburgh demonstration on Saturday night. It is expected the South End and adjoining territory will send up a very imposing crowd.

Suburban Electric Lights.

The Wheeling Electric Company has been canvassing for several days in the Pleasant Valley vicinity, with a view to extending its wires out there and furnishing the residents of that community with lights. By running the line direct it is thought the cost will be very moderate, and it is very likely that enough patronage will be secured to assure the extension.

Four Lunatics Disposed of.

Yesterday John Ernest was arraigned before Squire Gillespie as a lunatic, and after some evidence had been taken he was remanded to jail for an examination by the county physician.

Mrs. Annie Hucker, Peter McCann and A. D. McIntyre were taken to the new asylum at Spencer yesterday by attendants from that institution who came up for the purpose.

At Clerk Hook's Office.

Clerk Hook admitted to record a deed made October 31 by F. C. Hildreth, trustee, to William A. Wilson, for $1,225, part of lot 38 in Jonathan Zane's addition.

Marriage licenses were issued to the following named parties: James Johnson, aged 27, and Dora E. Winesburg, aged 22, both of Ohio county.

John Thonen, aged 27, and Julia K. Lane, aged 23, both of Wheeling.

Clarence M. Graham, aged 24, of Boston, and Josephine Amelia Ahlquist, aged 23, of Wheeling.

Death of an Estimable Lady.

Mrs. Jennie Spears, wife of Mr. Thomas Spears, Jr., of the Eighth ward, whose death occurred on Tuesday, will be buried to-day at 2 p. m. Mrs. Spears was a member of Stephens' Post Woman's Relief Corps No. 5, having filled several offices very acceptably in No. 5. Last year she filled the office of Department Inspector of the W. R. C. of this state very officially. She was greatly beloved by the members of the Woman's Relief Corps throughout the state, and by all that knew her. Always pleasant and gentle under all circumstances, her place in the W. R. C. will be hard to fill and she will be sadly missed in the meetings of the W. R. C. The members of the three corps of this city are requested to meet at Helmbright's hall, Eighth ward, at 1 p. m. to-day to attend the funeral.

But Will It Start?

The Cleveland Press reiterates an old story, in which it is to be hoped there is some truth, though it is still news here, as follows:

WHEELING, W. Va., Nov. 13.—The big fight of the United States Glass Company against its employees, the Flint Glass Workers' Union, has been on eighteen months, and as far as the two factions of the company in this city are concerned, nothing has transpired to give either side any idea of the general intentions of the other. Now, however, it is certain that the company will attempt to start factory O in this city. A Press man was informed by one of the company's officers that the factory will be running by the first of the year.

This plant is one of the best in the combine, and should non-union men be brought here there will surely be trouble. A few days ago the company declined to negotiate with the union.

Bazaar, Bazaar, Bazaar.

The King's Daughters of the Fourth Street M. E. church will hold a bazaar this afternoon and evening, commencing at 3 o'clock, which will excel the one given last year, both in general arrangements and number of fancy articles. Dainty hand-painted china, dolls and fine embroidered linens will be for sale. Refreshments—coffee and sandwiches, Japanese tea, ice cream and cake. Those in charge of the Japanese booth will be in costume, one town being direct from China. The King's Daughters use their time and money for charitable purposes, and should receive encouragement by a large patronage this evening. 10 cents admission.

Are You Interested?

We need room for Holiday Goods, therefore our entire stock of Cloaks, Blankets and Comforts will be closed at less than January reduction sale prices. Every thing new and desirable. Not an old Cloak, Blanket or Comfort in the lot. Come and see them. It will pay you.

RECOUNT POSTPONED.

The County Commissioners Will Have Another Day.

COMMISSIONER FROM RICHLAND

Is the Only Thing at Issue—Various Other Business Matters Transacted at Yesterday's Session After the Canvassing Board Got Done Its Work.

Yesterday the county commissioners met again as a board of canvassers, the business pending being a recount of the votes cast in precinct No. 2 of Richland district for county commissioner. R. P. Glass has on the face of the returns a majority of five, but Dr. Bates demands a recount. Mr. Glass for some reason failed to appear and the recount was deferred until this forenoon.

Orders were passed for the pay of the judges and clerks of elections, aggregating $1,550. Each commissioner will receive the money for his district and pay the election officials. The election costs each time from $3,500 to $5,000.

The contract for furnishing coal on county orders to persons north of the creek and to the court house and jail was let to John P. Gilchrist at his bid of 5½ cents for mixed and 5½ for nut. South of the creek it was given to Patrick Dougherty at 4 cents for mixed and 5 for nut. The contract to furnish medicine north of the creek was awarded to W. H. Hagus, of Sixteenth street, for $89, and south of the creek to George Ebeling for $84.60. The undertaking contract for the city district was given to Frank Schroeder, and on that for the country district action was postponed.

IN THE CRIMINAL COURT.

A Number of Pleas of Guilty Entered and Sentences Passed.

In the criminal court yesterday, Judge Jordan on the bench, a number of the people indicted on Monday were arraigned, pleaded guilty and received their sentences. The docket was also gone over, but only two unimportant cases were set. The remainder were postponed until Saturday.

Thomas Clark, indicted for jumping a board bill at the Hotel VanKeuren, on a plea of guilty was given five days in jail.

William Carter plead guilty to three charges of theft and one of assault and battery. On the first indictment he was fined $5 and on all the four he got five days each in jail, a total of twenty days.

Ed Hipsley, who stole grates from a vacant house, got ten days, and Michael Sullivan, for petit larceny, a like term. The Louis Briesach wife murder case will not be set for trial until Saturday. The first jury trial will begin this forenoon.

The Robinson Opera Company.

The presentation last night of "Girolo-Girolo" at the Opera House, by the Robinson Opera company, was well received. The house was moderately filled and all enjoyed the play. The Bolero of John Young was comically portrayed, and the swarthy Turk, Mourzouk, found a fine impersonation in William Pullman. The title role by Miss Gonzales, and Miss Barton as Aurora, the dominating element of Bolero's reign, were interpreted in a manner appreciated by the audience. "The Mascot" was prettily given to a good audience yesterday afternoon. This evening "The Chimes of Normandy" will be the opera.

SUITS AND OVERCOATS—THE HUB CLOTHIERS.

YOU HEAR IT SAID.

That we had one of the largest crowds of clothing buyers in our store last Saturday that has ever been seen in a store in Wheeling in many a day. That's so. We deserve it, we earned it, we expected it when we have a crowd, and they are getting to be quite frequent, as folks get better acquainted with us. They're buyers. That fortunate deal made by our buyer, in which he closed out over five hundred Overcoats from Knochenthal, White, Monks & Co.'s fine Rochester tailor-made garments, enabling us to offer

OVERCOATS AT $15.

Every one of which are really cheap at $20, $23 and $25. Out on the sidewalk in front of our store there was a crowd around the windows all day long. Inside the store there was a crowd all day long around the Overcoat tables; there were crowds around the Suit tables, around the Furnishing Goods tables, in the Children's Department, everywhere. Every man and woman who spent money in our store last Saturday—and about every one bought something—made something or saved something.

EVERY DAY THIS WEEK.

Will add customers to the parade under THE HUB'S banners. Hundreds of these elegant Overcoats left, at the same low price. We also add this week one hundred and fifty Overcoats, in dozens of colors, at $6.40, $8.00, $10 and $12. Handsome goods, worth, so our neighbors say, $3.00 to $5.00 more. At least that's the price they ask. Come and learn that we're strictly business.

Every evening, except Saturday, between the hours of 7 and 9 o'clock, we will sell our $1.50 All-Wool Filling Herculese Jeans Pants for 89c. They come in Oxford, Black and Steel Grey colors.
